

All set for Canada Day

Months of planning will climax in a full day of almost non-stop activity on Monday, July 1, as Elk Point turns out in full force to celebrate Canada's 118th birthday.

The day will kick off with a free pancake breakfast next to the Plaza 75 Mall on 50th St., and 51st Ave., from 7:30 until 10:30 a.m., sponsored by a group of merchants in that area.

At 11:00 a.m., the Great Bed Race will start its wobbly way down 50th Street, from the Elementary School Grounds to the Elk Point Hotel corner, with 3 to 5 person teams pushing decorated beds with pajamaed riders down the route, with prizes for the first and second teams finishing.

At 11:30, the Lioness Parade will leave the marshalling area north of the arena for its longest-ever, 20 block route. This year's Canada Day theme, "Salute To Youth" will be echoed in many of the entries. A special attraction will be the Cold Lake Air Force Band.

Following the parade, the Prairie Ramblers will strike up some good country music on the stage north of the Elks Hall, to set the mood for a whole afternoon of entertainment and fun.

The color party, with representatives of a myriad of groups and organizations, will form up in front of the Post Office at approximately 1:10 p.m., and will move westward to the area in front of the stage promptly at 1:15 p.m., for the Opening Ceremonies.

Two outstanding young people from the Elk Point area will be presented with special award plaques at this time, after which they will officially declare the Canada Day celebrations underway. Several dignitaries and representatives of local clergy will also give brief addresses.

Following the Official Opening, a number of activities will get underway, with horseshoes for the adults, games and contests for the youngsters, and a stage performance with a variety of entertainment going on all afternoon. The Historical Society will invite you to sign their giant map of Canada 'guest book', you can

Chamber to meet June 27

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce decided last week to hold a special meeting this Thursday to wrap up their pre-summer load of business before the July and August recess.

The meeting will be held at noon on Thursday, June 27 in the Fireside Lounge at the Empress, and members are urged to attend to help with a number of important decisions.

Al Mitchell chaired last week's meeting, which had a small attendance of 14.

Canada Day activities were high on the agenda, with the Chamber's involvement to include carrying the banner in the color party, organizing adult games, having a float in the parade, and determining the two young people to be honored that day. Clark Stuparyk has indicated that the 51 Avenue North merchants will be sponsoring a pancake breakfast that day.

Mill rate drop

Elk Point Town Council brought down the 1985 budget Monday night, with mill rates reflecting a 8.31 per cent drop for non-residential and 7.46 per cent for residential taxes.

The non-residential mill rate was set at 20.811 mills, while the residential figure was 16.343 mills.

Council gave Bylaw 409/85 all three readings to set the mill rate, after completing their final discussions on the budget.

In the wake of budget approval, 1985 tax notices are expected to be in the mail shortly.

Elk Point population tops 1200

Elk Point's population has passed the 1200 mark, with 1209 people counted in the recent census. This is a 7.9% jump from the 1984 figure of 1113. Administrator Pat Vincent reported the new figure at Monday's Council meeting, and a motion was made to change the highway signs accordingly.

Council moved to enter into a six month contract with E. Poulin for garbage collection until January 1, 1986, at a cost of $3,250 per month. The concept of a "User Pay" system was referred to the finance committee for further study.

Pictures: 2:00 p.m., Happy Hour: 3:00 p.m., Supper: 4:00 p.m., Program: 7:00 p.m., Dance: 9:00 p.m. Dress informal.

A protective enclosure for the air conditioning unit at the new library will be built by Birch Hill Enterprises, whose proposal was approved by Council. The Library Board will review their janitorial needs before the Town calls for tenders on that service.

Kenart Investments were questioned regarding the garbage storage enclosure at the apartment complex and oiling the road adjacent to Alico Motor Inn. They indicated that the garbage enclosure will be completed this week, however Council later moved to have Town staff build a unit at Kenart's expense if the work is not completed by July 2.

Kenart officials indicated that the dusty portion of 57th Avenue will be paved in 4 to 6 weeks, when the Alico parking lot is done. Council felt this was too long to wait, in view of the nuisance factor, and moved to have the oiling done as soon as possible at the developer's expense.

Alternatives for development of Phase II of the Industrial Park were tabled for further study. Council did, however, go ahead with a resolution to make application to annex two 80 acre parcels for later industrial expansion. The remaining 80 acres of Andrishak property and the south half of the Babcock quarter section adjoining the subdivision's north side were the parcels council moved to apply for.

No petitioners appeared to protest the rezoning of Block 1, Plan 610 HW from Urban Reserve to Single Family Residential. Council, however still has some reservations in the matter and only gave Bylaw 411/85 its second reading, deferring the final reading until the next regular meeting.

Council discussed a proposal from Elk Point Body Builders to lease the basement of the old courthouse for a family fitness centre, but decided to deny the request because they felt the facility was unsuitable for that purpose.

Special Chamber meeting Thursday

Further reports on the canoe visitors were not available, although Sid Holthe reported the date of July 8 has been confirmed. He suggested that the Chamber make some type of presentation to the voyagers.

Problems centering on the tourist booth operation were discussed, and will be brought forth again at Thursday's meeting.

Manager Jim Goyer of B and J Transport was on hand to tell the Chamber about his business, which offers same-day service from Edmonton.

Town liaison, Bruce Kleeberger, reported that Ken Aarbo represented the Chamber at the General Municipal Plan Review meeting, and stressed the importance of the Chamber's involvement.

He also reported that Mayor Buck, Ken Aarbo and Pat Vincent had attended a meeting with Transport Minister Marvin Moore at Molly's Corner Cafe, near Heinsburg. The Minister heard submissions from several groups and then met privately with them, but did not speak to the group as a whole.

The Minister and local MLA's are being lobbied regarding a road east from the Highway 28-41 junction to Murphy Oil and a road north of Murphy's installation to Bonnyville. The Town has petitioned against these roads, however it has been indicated that the Counties are in favor of this development.

Changes for youth program

Ernie Isley, Minister of Alberta Manpower, announced changes to the Youth Employment and Training Program which will expand the eligibility for the program.

The $123 million program designed to give young Albertans the experience they need to realize their career potential, began operating on November 1, 1984 and will end on March 31, 1987. To date, more than 3,000 young people have worked and trained in positions funded with the program.

An advertising campaign has been launched to inform youths and employers how they can get involved in the program. It focuses on "I mean business" cards which young adults can pick up at the Career Centres and use in their job search.

Under the Post-Secondary Internship and Training element of the program, employers receive a wage subsidy up to $7,800 per year when they hire an unemployed post-secondary graduate. The eligibility has been extended from graduates of the last 12 months, to graduates of the last 24 months.

The second element, Youth Work Experience and Training, is aimed at 17 to 24 year old high school graduates and those who did not graduate and have been out of school for at least 12 months. Employers receive a wage subsidy up to $3.50 per hour or $140 per week for six months.

Under the previous guidelines, young Albertans hired under both elements of the program must have been unemployed for four months. This has been changed to two months.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF RETIREMENT

Dr. K.C. Miller of Marwayne, Alberta, would like to announce his retirement effective June 30th, 1985. Enquiries from patients may be directed to the office at 847-3939 until the end of June. Dr. Miller has enjoyed working with his patients and wishes them good health in the future.

RCMP staffers introduce crime prevention programs

My name is Tova Hellquist and my colleague is Laurie Shmyr. This summer Laurie and I will be members of the Elk Point RCMP. Our main objective is to inform the community of the Crime Prevention Programs that are available through the Elk Point Police Department. Some of these programs involve Operation Identification, Operation Provident, Neighborhood Watch, and Block Parent.

Operation Identification offers tips on how to prevent small business burglaries as well as home vandalism. Taking small precautions such as a locking up properly, marking valuable equipment with identification numbers, and posting identification warning stickers on your windows discourages theft of valuables. These procedures can and should be carried out in your home as well as your business. Neighborhood Watch is another program in which everyone in this community should get involved. By getting involved in Neighborhood Watch, crime can be reduced. All you have to do is take the time to help your neighbor protect his property and it will then be his responsibility to help you protect yours.

The Block Parent Program is another aim at assisting in crime prevention. It involves getting volunteers from the community to agree to act as responsible adults in emergencies involving the children and adults of their community. The choice to become a Block Parent is totally voluntary, but highly encouraged. All that is required is a Block Parent sign to be put up in your window when you are available to assist a child in need. The sign may be taken down if and when you are not available to help a frightened child.

These programs are just a few of the many which are available to the community through the Elk Point RCMP and service clubs in Elk Point. Take the time to join Operation Identification and help discourage thefts. With everyone's support and participation, the crime rate can be greatly reduced.

For further information with regard to any one of these programs, you may contact the local RCMP Detachment at 724-3829.

Happy Birthday, Canada

"This land is your land, this land is my land..."

Never do we feel this pride of ownership more than on our country's birthday, as communities from sea to sea join in celebrations honoring our land its heritage.

This year's Canada Day Theme is "Salute to Youth", and a more fitting theme could not be found, because it is these young people who hold the country's future in their hands.

Today's youth is well aware of their multi-cultural heritage, and will help to carry on the traditions for yet another generation.

They are aware of their environment, and concerned for its welfare. They are aware of the country's limitless potential for growth and productivity, and are seeking the education which will help them to deal effectively with this.

They are aware of the variety of people in Canada, of the many races and nationalities, age groups, and income levels, and are prepared to take down these barriers with compassion, understanding and tolerance.

They are aware of Canada's place in the world, in business, sports, and politics, and are anxious to become good-will ambassadors on an international scale.

Canada's youth is also aware, and very proud of the beauty of their country and are proud, as we are, to make it their home.

Our youth is our future, and the glow of their enthusiasm will light our country on Canada Day, like a giant birthday cake from Atlantic to Pacific.

May it always be this way.

Fly our Flag

A time for remembering

This weekend, members and leaders of Elk Point 4-H Beef Club during all twenty years of its history will gather for a giant anniversary celebration.

Meanwhile, in Clandonald, over forty years of high school students and teachers will gather to reminisce about the "good old days".

How fitting, in this Year of Youth, to remember our own younger years! But what will we remember?

At these, and numerous other reunions, homecoming and anniversary celebrations planned for the summer of 1985, the main topic of conversation is sure to be the past.

It is good, and fitting, to remember the happy times we have shared, the hours of fun and fellowship, the triumphs and achievements, of those years gone by.

However, among these memories, old arguments disagreements and grudges may float to the surface, whether we will them to or not. Please, let's poke them back down again under the bubbles of happiness. All those things happened in the past, and are of little consequence today.

To borrow a famous phrase from Sylvester the Cat, "Let's bygones be bygones. Let's be friends!" And no canary feathers on the whiskers later, please.

meanwhile, back at the ranch

by VICKI BROOKER

Isn't it amazing how one gets to take life's little amenities for granted, for example the automatic washing machine? When one's lone source of clean clothing suddenly takes an unplanned vacation, it's panic button time!

This unfortunate occurrence happened at the Ranch last week. One, two, three giant loads of blue jeans, all washed and spun dry to perfection. One puny load of perma-pressed flimsies — and it decides it's spun its last. Phooey!

Well — no immediate cause to worry. These garments are light & easily wrung out by hand. And after all, it's the last load of the day.

But, several days down the road, the mountain of towels, T shirts, and blue jeans is growing again, and an attempt to affect repairs to the machine discloses parts seemingly welded together by time and motion. We can't even get to the part which seems to be out of order, but that doesn't slow down the accumulating laundry.

There's only one solution: Four plastic garbage bags, a roll of quarters, and a trip to the laundromat.

With four efficient machines swishing away, I paused to reflect on my long involvement with laundromats, and laundry.

I remember when the first laundromats were set up — my mother thought they were great! No more heating washtubs of hauled-in-buckets of water on the coal stove, no more noisy, fumes-producing gasoline washing machine, no more clotheslines to be propped up so the sheets won't touch the lawn...Just haul the clothes to town, stuff them in the machines, one quarter in each, and a sprinkle of detergent, and sit back while the work is done.

A few years later, I was on my own, with my first job, and just naturally made the laundromat one of my regular stops. Soon after we married, we found an apartment with the oldest electric washer I'd ever seen, and I started an endless wrangle with its wringer — a battle I never seemed to win. In a later apartment, I bought an "apartment washer" — a canner-sized machine with a muscle-powered wringer.

What a relief, two babies later, when my mother suggested I pick out a used automatic washer and dryer — and put them on her charge account! No more washing diapers by hand or in that oversized stewpot — sheer bliss! Those $35 clunkers lasted a long time, too.

At a later date, with baby No. 4 on its way and settled in a nice suburban home of our own, we decided it was time for a new washer. That one lasted until just before we came north, although it rattled every window and the glasses in the cupboards of our doublewide during its spin cycle.

The old dryer, had also been replaced, with another used unit, which worked fine, and just needed a new element every year or so. It went to the dump when we left the city, and we bought a propane one at a sale, which sat in the corner of the barn all the time we were at the Calgary farm. Somehow we just never got around to hooking it up — it may still be there, as far as I know. I had clotheslines for summer, and a friendly mother-in-law for winter drying.

When we were packing to move north, a brand new dryer joined one load, along with a "good used" washer donated by a brother-in-law. The dryer is still going strong, and has cured itself of an alarming squeak developed at one point. That washer developed paralysis in one short year, and was replaced by the present equipment — just over 7 years ago.

My re-introduction to laundromats came when we began to follow the Chuckwagon circuit. Laundromats from Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan, to Cheyenne, Wyoming were put to use to wash an endless procession of wagon shirts and other trail-grimed gear. It was nice to get home at each summer's end and wash the final lot of dust out in my own Old Faithful.

And now, here we are again, at the laundromat. Time to throw the clothes in the dryers. If I could dry jeans in 30 minutes at home, I'd have my wash done in half the time.

Come to think of it, I may have spent $6.25, but I've done four loads of wash in the time of one — that's not bad at all!

letter to the editor

Quality Education

In reply to the letter under the editorial section of last June 19th, regarding "adequate schools with an enthusiastic staff", I beg to differ.

In my opinion as a parent, I am appalled at the lack of education my children are receiving. We have some teachers merely filling a seat while other teachers, who are dedicated and wish to upgrade the quality of education at the E.P. schools, find themselves unduly harassed.

There are many problems in our schools such as not enough books and equipment to go around and the ones available are mostly outdated. We are paying book rentals on books that don't exist. We have subjects taught by teachers that are not qualified. The timetable of subjects is highly unorganized. There seems to be too much emphasis on sports instead of the core subjects. Why do we go through a graduation ceremony when students have not received all their credits? The list goes on and on.

Under these conditions, students couldn't possibly be employable because they finish high school totally unfit for any job. Lets use our money wisely and employ staff that are qualified to educate our children.

Mickey Mouse grad for Heinsburg ECS

Caps and gowns, corsages and scrolls, a processional march, a guest speaker, and a hall packed with proud parents and grandparents... This is graduation.

All these were present on Tuesday, June 18, in Heinsburg. All that varied from the usual graduation ceremonies was the large cap-and-gowned Mickey Mouse on the wall beside the scrolls bearing graduates' names, the substitution of "Teddy Bear's Picnic" for "Pomp and Circumstance", and the fact that all of the 21 graduates were six years of age or younger.

DIPLOMA PRESENTATION — Jamie Sharkey accepts his diploma from Mr. Wilson.

Flashbulbs popped wildly as the Heinsburg ECS Class of '85 came solemnly forward to take their place on stage, with Principal Laverne Wilson calling out each name. Wilson later introduced ECS Teacher Donna Wysocki, Teacher Aide Jenny Kinch, School Board representative Bob Smith and Frog Lake Administration representative Mr. Abraham.

A humorous and very true-to-life recitation by the graduates was entitled "Every Day We're Growing up".

Each student was then called forward to accept a beribboned scroll from Mr. Wilson, and later to get a "Graduation Owl" from their teacher.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Teacher Aide Jenny Kinch, who remarked "How fast the last nine months have gone by!" and reported that she had really enjoyed working with the class and Miss Wysocki.

Miss Wysocki paid tribute to "Twenty one little friends I'll never forget" and to her faithful helper Leanne Rainey.

A KISS FOR TEACHER — Nicole Moyah and Marty Bendixen present Teachers Aide Jenny Kinch with flowers, an oversized greeting card and a farewell kiss.

"A busy year, but lots of fun", she added, has been enjoyed by all.

A gift to be treasured forever, a quilt featuring drawings by every student, was presented to Miss Wysocki, while Mrs. Kinch received a ceramic tea set, along with a giant greeting card.

There were gifts for all the graduates too, with miniature old-fashioned slates being donated by Mr. & Mrs. Sam Krider.

Crop report

Crop condition has not deteriorated this past week due to lack of moisture.

The estimated current soil moisture conditions are good.

The condition of Hard Red Spring Wheat in relation to a 100% condition is 95%, Oats is 95%, Barley is 90% and Canola is 90%.

The estimated potential average yield per acre is 1361 kg for hard Red Spring Wheat, 1306 kg for Barley and 680 kg for Canola.

Hard Red Spring Wheat is currently 100% in the emerging stage, Barley is 90% in the emerging stage and Canola is 95% in the emerging stage.

Crop damage (the flea beetle) is light in Canola.

The estimated date swathing will start is Sept. 1, 1985.

Light flea beetle infestations. With the heat of the past week the crops have really started to show good growth. The weather is very unsettled.

Stoney Lake holds stampede

Stoney Lake Stampede Association hosted their 23rd Annual Stampede this past weekend, with good crowds at both performances ignoring threatening skies to enjoy the non-stop action.

Each performance began with a colorful procession of flag-bearing horsemen from the Stoney Lake Stampede Association, led by John and Orest Drobot carrying the Canadian flags. Announcer George Harrison introduced the riders, as well as pickup men Donald Demchuk and Don Garriock, judged Hilbert Bintz and Doug Bidulock, timers Arla Garriock and Olga Melnyk, Stoney Lake Stampede Association President Leonard Demchuk, and Bullfighter Dean "Slippery" Hoover.

A moment's silence honored the late Steve Y. Demchuk, a member of the Stampede Association for many years, who passed away recently.

Rodeo action got underway with the Bareback Bronc Riding, with St. Paul cowboy Ted Hehr taking home the Elk Point Hotel trophy with a 79 point score for the final ride of Sunday's performance. Darrell Wickham and Maynard Swedgan, both of Elk Point, scored 78 and 76 points respectively to place second and third.

Other sponsors of the Bareback competition were St. Paul & District Co-op, Paulichuk Farm Equipment, and St. Paul Pump Service.

First timed event each day was the Calf Roping, with large and agile calves contributing to some rather slow times. Winner Ray Blakely of Edmonton tied up his catch in 11.21 seconds for the Toronto-Dominion Bank, Elk Point, trophy, while second and third places went to Gene Stuckey, with 12.69 seconds and Don Helmig with 12.86 seconds. Other contributors to the event were Wolanuk's Fashions and Foods, St. Paul Beverages and Burger Palace.

Saddle Bronc winner was Malcolm Miller of Edberg, who marked 74 points on "Trail Dust" for the Zarowny Motors trophy. Cal Leville of Debolt placed second with 71 points. Other Saddle Bronc sponsors were Paul Caouette and Sons, Ed Vogel UFA, and Dary's Auction Services.

Melvin Lawes of Provost wrestled his steer at Saturday's performance in a speedy 4.14 seconds, a time which went unequalled to win him the Dale Real Estate trophy. Second place went to Don Helmig of Forestburg with 4.83 seconds, while Guy Rowrath of Czar placed third with 4.99 seconds. Other Steer Wrestling sponsors were Centennial Furniture Barn, Senecal Tire and Linkewich Trucking and Corral Cleaning.

This year's Junior Steer Riding champion was Barry Jackson, with 73 points, winner of the Evergreen Stationers trophy. Loreli Wickham of Elk Point placed a close second with 72 points, while Jason Hagar was third with 70 points. Letourneau Farm Supplies and Dan's Auto Body also sponsored this event.

Cindy Gamroth completed her ladies Barrel Racing cloverleaf in 17.91 seconds to win the Elk Point Insurance and Realty trophy. The second fastest time was clocked by Ruth Isley with 17.99, while Corleen Romaniuk took third money with 18.06 seconds. Contributing to this event's prize money were Gregg's Family Shopping Centre, St. Paul Sales and Service, St. Paul Tire Shop, and 3D General Service.

Trophies from the Empress Family Restaurant went to the Wild Cow Milking champions. Ray Suvak's team was Saturday's winner, while Darrell Smith's threesome topped Sunday's event. The Smith team won a bonus prize of three steak suppers, courtesy of Rose Ahern. Super Burger and Wozniak's Texaco Service were contributors to the purse in this event.

Rhonda Bailey of Ashmont was awarded the Linkewich Mobile Home Park trophy for Junior Ladies Barrel Racing, with her time of 17.84 seconds on Sunday moving Saturday's leaders, Sandra Wise and Wendy Lorensen, with 18.01 seconds each, into a tie for second. Phil's Hardware and Variety and Speedy Mart contributed to the purse in this event.

It was Bulls 12 - Cowboys 0 on Sunday with every single bull rider biting the dust and giving Saturday's leader, Guy Ness of Red Deer the Beaver Lumber trophy for his 83 point ride. Dale Fulkerth was second with 78 points and Colin Willier placed third with 73. B & R Transport, Elk Point Gulf Service and Tribal Chiefs Association of Alberta sponsored the purse.

A special event at this year's rodeo was Pee Wee Barrel Racing for boys and girls under 10 years of age, with the Demchuk family sponsoring the Steve Y. Demchuk Memorial Trophy, won by Holly Fletcher with a time of 18.22 seconds. A number of local youngsters competed in this event along with the Junior Barrel Racers.

Two other events spotlighted the littlest cowboys and cowgirls. Nine month old Kevin Trach and 6 year old Christa Marchesi of Edmonton were named the best dressed cowboy and cowgirl, winning trophies donated by Pete's Antique Service, while Conway Roscoe was judged the best Mutton Buster for the John Oryschuk Trucking trophy.

Two teams competed in the Wild Horse Race, with Rob Stanley's threesome edging out the Vern Goad team for the St. Paul Livestock Auction Mart trophy. Lakeland Oilfield Services and Lloydminster Heavy Crude Services contributed to the purse in this event.

The Stoney Lake Spectacular Stoneboard Race proved popular as usual, with Rob Stanley and Vern Goad placing first and second on Saturday and Rob Stanley and Richard Ference placing first and second on Sunday. Drobot's Auction Services sponsored the trophy, while Glendon UFA and Den-Mar Oilfield Services sponsored the purse.

A total of $340 in prize money was split 60% - 40%

by winner Dion Roscoe and second place finisher Derek Hehr in the Wild Ride. Zany costumes and untied horses added to the excitement of this event. Stoney Lake Stampede Association, Old Style Ranch, Demchuk's Coyote Creek Ranch, Solar Farm Equipment, Gordy's Rad and Glass, Westmin Resources, Ray's Rad Repair, Robert Schaap and Fred Hickie and Sons contributed the prize money, while Rose Ahern contributed a steak dinner for the winner.

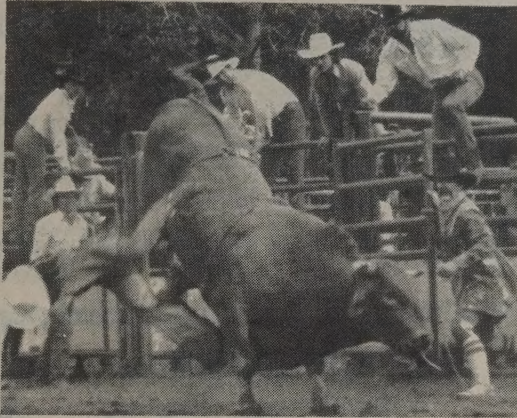

The two days of action wound up with a Heavy Horse Pull, with a team owned by Ivor Lyster and handled by Ron Brereton pulling 3300 lb. over their weight to win top honors. Stoney Lake Stampede Association and Lakeland Drilling sponsored the horse pull.

Dances on both Friday and Saturday nights and a Free Pancake Breakfast sponsored by St. Paul Packers, the Stampede Association, Zacharuk's Poultry Farm and MLA John Drobot added to the weekend's festivities.

Rodeo stock was supplied by Les Trach, while Gene Hoffman Trucking sponsored the all-around trophy.

MINI RACER — Pamela Veer competed in the Pee Wee Barrel Racing sponsored by the Demchuk family in memory of Steve Y. Demchuk.

GOING DOWN — Lyle Potts bites the dust as "Hit-chhiker" heads for the hills.

From the Sergeant's desk

By SGT. JIM FELL

Now that summer is finally here, although you would hardly know it, I thought I would review the equipment requirements for small vessels or outboard motor boats as we know them.

The first and most important of all the safety equipment that is required in a small vessel is an approved lifejacket, personal flotation device, or a life saving cushion for each passenger in the boat. The approval number is on the tag inside the device and must be Canadian standards, American although just as good or better, does not meet the standards as prescribed by the Canadian Government. It is not mandatory to wear the jacket but I shouldn't have to remind you that one man drowned in Little Garnier Lake last summer because he didn't have his life jacket on, it was up under the bow of the boat.

You also require two oars with rowlocks or two paddles, one hand-held bailer or one manuel pump, one class B-1 fire extinguisher if the vessel has an inboard motor or fixed fuel tank or heating or cooking appliance that burns liquid or gaseous fuel.

If your boat is equipped with lights they must be in working order and comply with the "COLLISION REGULATIONS" of the Canada Shipping Act. You must also have some type of sound signalling device such as a horn or whistle. A whistle attached to your life jacket is one of the easiest and most convenient ways to comply with this regulation and may save your life if ever you end up in the water.

I wish you all the very best summer full of lots of hot sunny days, enjoy yourself but don't forget common sense and safety.

Elk Point 4-H news

by ELENA DROBOT

The Elk Point 4-H club had their regular monthly meeting on Monday, June 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of club members Ron and Dwayne Vogel.

Secretary Brenda Anderson read the minutes of the last meeting. Darwin Ference won a $10.00 prize for the best float design. We will be decorating our float at the arena on June 28 at 2:00 p.m.

Next we discussed our 20th Anniversary Reunion and decided to ask some of the past leaders to help with the pancake breakfast. We will be having a booth and will be selling the following. Coffee, juice, watermelon, gum and licorice. Taking registration at the gate will be Donna Brooker and Dwayne Vogel while Mrs. Brooker will work at the door.

Don't forget!!! Our record books must be handed in by June 24 and all project books must be completed and handed in by July 15. See you at the Reunion on June 30.

scheduled for June 29 and 30.

June 15 was also the day that over one hundred friends and relatives of Eddie Stockwell filled the Clandonald Hall to wish him a happy 80th Birthday. They were entertained by instrumental numbers, vocals, dances, and speeches. The guests came from Vermilion, Red Deer, Lacombe, Edmonton and England, as well as many from our area.

Mr. Stockwell's two daughters, six grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren were all there.

On Tuesday, the 18th, the PeeWee girls went to Elk Point to play ball, and this time they won.

Evelyn Thronson won the Agricultural Society lottery.

Greg Yaseyko, in Grade 2 in Clandonald School, has won the "Nutrition at School" poster contest, at the Provincial level.

Wednesday, June 19, the weather co-operated for the Clandonald School Sports Day. All the students were out running, jumping, and throwing, and generally enjoying a hot spring day outdoors.

A total of six school records were tied or broken at the Junior High level. Carla McNamara set a new time in the 100 m. run, of 14.2 sec. (old record was 14.9 sec.). She also tied the old record of 33.5 sec. for the 200 m. run. In the long jump, Christina Garnier jumped 380 cm., breaking the old record by 7cm.. Carla and Christina are in the 12 and 13 year old girls division.

In the girls 14 and over, Tami Rewuski ran the 100 m. in 13.6 sec., (previous record 14.3 sec.), and jumped 405 cm. in the long jump. That jump was 20 cm. longer than the previous record.

Greg Thronson broke the boys 14 and over high jump record by 1 cm., jumping 149 cm. Roger Osinchuk, in the long jump, set a new record of 479 cm., breaking the old record of 445 cm.

For the first time, the javelin throw was added to the track meet. The distance of the winning throw in each age level becomes the first school record in that event: girls 12 & 13, Cheryl Nowosad — 1780 cm.; girls 14 and over, Tami Rewuski — 1570 cm.; boys 12 and 13, Rick Rybchinsky — 2166 cm.; and boys 14 and over, Philip Lawrence — 3462 cm.

A dream of the past

One day as I dreamt,
As I usually dream
Of a place so far away,
To hunt and survive
As my ancestors did,
To be alone
With only my love
And the land
In which to survive.

Last chance for bed races

Here is more information on the first Annual Great Elk Point Bed Race.

It is to be held on main street, between the Elementary School grounds and the hotel corner, beginning at 11:00 a.m. on Canada Day.

Three to five person teams will compete. There is no entry fee, and 1st and 2nd prizes will be awarded. Beds can be decorated anyway but wheels cannot be changed. The person in bed must wear pyjamas or other nightwear over their regular clothes.

Please register before Friday, 28th with Donna Brooker at the Lakeland Review at 724-4302 between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m..

Dewberry news roundup

By Cliff Cunningham

We had two break-ins in Dewberry last week. On Wednesday night the Post Office was broken into and on Thursday night, June 13th, the Dewberry Service was broken into with some tools and other things stolen.

Your news reporter along with Donald Vivian and Bill Holman went on a Royal Travel tour to Saskatoon, Regina and Moose Jaw air show, a very nice four day trip. No rain just a strong cold wind. Not all the geese go up north. In the Regina Park they have four thousand geese.

We toured three different museums in each city and a lot of other interesting places. There were twenty-eight on the bus along with Glenn Dudding, the bus driver and owner, and Ellen Hviid as escort.

The last evening in Moose Jaw they invited us to a party put on by Royal Travel. It was a nice get-together with jokes, songs, some old time dancing and a couple of recitations by your news reporter. After leaving Moose Jaw we crossed on the Gardiner Dam by the Diefenbaker Lake.

In Saskatoon we were shown where Diefenbaker's grave is. After leaving the Gardiner Dam, we went to Rosetown to Battleford and back to Lloydminster. The crops look better in this part of the country than they are in the part of Saskatchewan we were in.

The Dewberry Chuckwagon races drew a large crowd as usual. I was away on a tour but I understand they had some rain and a cold wind the two days of the races. (Editor's note: Herman Flad of Bodo won the wagon meet.)

The Dewberry and District Ladies Birthday Club had their party and get-together at Lea Park on June 19th with a good turnout. The North West Centennial tour didn't show up at Dewberry on June 17th, due to some kind of a mix-up at Lloyd. They will be at Dewberry on Monday June 24th. There are more good tours coming up this summer. Anyone interested call around for a cup of coffee, as I have some information about these tours.

We have had rain and showers in the last week and the gardens are coming along good now. On June 15th we had over ½ inch of rain. Today, June 19th it is 84 degrees F. in the shade. Last week the low was 36 degrees F. and the high was 72 degrees F.

Happy Birthday to all that have a birthday in June.

Tree applications available now

We have received our list of available trees for distribution in the spring of 1986. In order to receive some trees you must fill out a tree application in your local Alberta Agriculture District Office.

This year there has been a policy change regarding eligibility for receiving trees. The new policy states: "Farmers" are entitled to receive shelterbelt trees for: farmstead shelterbelts, field windbreaks and roadside hedges. Farmers will be defined as those individuals who are primary producers of crops and livestock. This definition as used for tax purposes by the municipality in which the land is located, will be used to determine the acceptability of any particular applicant. Therefore if you're farming and you want to order trees come in and fill out an application form through the Alberta Agriculture District Office.

All trees from the nursery for establishing shelterbelts will be supplied on a first come, first served basis. When you fill out this form you agree to the payment of shipping charges, to use the trees only for shelterbelt purposes, to summerfallow the planting site and maintain it in a well cultivated condition and that any trees you receive will not be sold at a later date.

All planting sites are subject to inspection to verify the above conditions.

Mosquito teams wind-up season

Elk Point's Mosquito ball teams wound up their season with a very successful weiner roast.

The Elk Point Tags Store and Elk Point Meat Processors kindly reduced the cost so the boys could enjoy a good afternoon, and their support is greatly appreciated.

By the way... the boys beat the moms by a score of 24 to 21.

Thanks to all who helped.

Schools meet Safe Grad challenge

Representatives of F.G. Miller High School, Elk Point, Heinsburg High School and Frog Lake High School met with Cpl. Doug Huskins of the Elk Point RCMP Detachment on Friday, to receive their hard-earned Safe Grad awards.

F.G. MILLER HIGH SCHOOL — Representative Kelly Young and Principal Bob Tredger accept the Safe Grad award from Cst. Doug Huskins.

The three schools earned a total of $1,195.00 to be distributed to their favorite charities, by their admirable behavior on the nights of their graduations. Each graduating class was challenged not to drive a vehicle while impaired, or ride with an impaired driver, during the period from noon of their graduation day until noon of the next day, with all three groups meeting the challenge.

Pledges were collected from 35 service clubs, businesses, groups and individuals, with each donor indicating which school their donation should go to. F.G. Miller's share of the pledges totalled $646.00, while Heinsburg amassed $287.00 and Frog Lake $262.00. The F.G. Miller cheque will be forwarded to the Northern Alberta Children's Hospital, while the other two schools will be donating theirs to African Aid.

Handsome banners proclaiming "Safe Grad 85" were presented to each school, courtesy of local graphic artist Hans Rohner of Graphica, who has indicated that he would continue to support future Safe Grad programs in the same way.

A complete list of donors follows: F.G. Miller High School teachers; Elk Point Macleods; Dr. B.G. Kleeberger; U.F.A.; Elk Point Insurance and Realty; Gail Kozicky; Jensen, Clark, Abbott, Ireland Chartered Accountants; Barber Stylist Shop; Elk Point Co-op; Radio LW; Plaza 75; Work Warehouse; Joe & Marion Tredger, Bea and John Williams; Paul Stepa; Elk Point FCSS (Marie Buck); Phil's Hardware; Treasury Branch; Elk Point Bakery; Dave's Pizza; Elk Point Lioness Club; Order of Royal Purple; Stafford Drilling; Stella and Milton Lorensen; Fort George Agencies; Gary & Lyn Young; Poitras Porta Welding; Sherry & Lorne Young; Martin Aarbo; Elk Point Lions Club; Heinsburg Community Club; Lindbergh Oilfield Service; Pioneer Circle; Elk Point RCMP Detachment; Lakeland Review.

HEINSBURG HIGH SCHOOL — Heath Good of the Graduating Class and Principal Laverne Wilson accept the Safe Grad award and banner from Cst. Doug Huskins of Elk Point RCMP.

FROG LAKE GRAD — Betty Quinney and Principal George Saliwonczyk accept a cheque for $262 and a Safe Grad banner from Cst. Doug Huskins.
